November 2014

Dear Friends,

November, a month of contrasts! We start this month by looking back and remembering, with All Saints day, then All Souls day and then of course Remembrance Sunday and Armistice Day. But on the very last day of the month we have Advent Sunday, when we start to look forward to the return of Christ when he will come to claim his kingdom. Sometimes we think of this as an end, and a beginning, but it is one continual process as we live the yearly cycle of adoration, worship, reflection and hopeful preparation.

All Souls day is one that many find difficult because it seems that we are focussing on a painful loss, but the truth couldn't be more different. We should be celebrating and giving thanks that we can still have a tie with the departed. Our time with them in this life was paralleled by a spiritual relationship and while the body may die and that part of the relationship ends, our spiritual relationship continues and of the two, is the more permanent. As St Clare once wrote, "compared to the spiritual existence of eternity, our short time on earth is almost insignificant". As we progress through the year in the presence of God, developing our relationship with Him, we can still hold the departed in our hearts and minds, praying that through God's grace and mercy, we may one day be reunited with them.

A well-known reading used frequently at funerals comes from Henry Scott-Holland and starts:

"Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped away into the next room, I am I, and you are you, whatever we were to each other, that we are still..."

With my prayers and best wishes,

Ron

The front cover picture is derived from a first world war poster.

"They shall not grow old as we who are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor time condemn. At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, WE WILL REMEMBER THEM."

Church Close Housing Development

Brooks and Wood Ltd of Ipswich have been appointed by Orwell Housing Association to build the ten affordable homes at Church Close. The contractor plans to start work on 3 November 2014, initially clearing the site, setting up offices and storage and fencing the boundary (where no permanent fencing exists). Thereafter construction of the dwellings will start with a view to its completion by September 2015. The contractor is committed to minimising disruption to the neighbourhood during the building operations. Any questions, queries or complaints should be addressed to the Site Manager, Mr Darren Houghton, whose contact details are dhoughton@brooksandwood.co.uk and mobile 07743 803110. The Head Office contact is Mr David Mittel, who is available on 01473 719191.

Public notice issued by Wilby Parish Council for the information of residents

Wilby Parish Noticeboard

The Parish noticeboard is located outside the school opposite the village hall and has recently been refurbished by the Parish Council. It provides a space to publicise events and services of likely interest to the residents of Wilby. Importantly it is also used by the Parish Council, which is required by law to display a range of notices including the agenda for its meetings and statutory notices relating to elections, audits and certain planning decisions (even though such notices may also be publicised on its website). Recently little or no space has been available for such official material, which will normally be placed on the left hand side of the noticeboard. The Parish Council reserves the right to move notices to enable the display of statutory items. Also it would be helpful and make best use of the limited space available if private notices of events/services etc. were restricted to one notice and were removed if no longer current. The school, church and village hall of course have their own noticeboards to display forthcoming events.

Wilby Parish Council - New Parish Clerk

Wilby Parish Council is pleased to announce that Mrs Julie Collett has been appointed as Clerk to the Council effective from 1 October 2014. Julie is currently the Clerk to Huntingfield Parish Council and will be taking on Wilby as additional responsibility. She can be contacted for Wilby business during normal working hours (or in an emergency) by telephone on 01986 798258 or by e-mail at j.collett5@btinternet.com

NEWS FROM WILBY SCHOOL

As ever, we've been busy at Wilby School. Please take note of these upcoming events, to which the whole community is very welcome (all in the school hall):

- Thursday 6th November, 9 -10:30am – ‘Tea & Toys’, an informal session for parents and pre-school children to play and get to know each other. You're welcome to come even if you're not already at Wilby School!
- Tuesday 11th November, 6:30pm - performance of 'Archie Hamilton's War', to commemorate World War 1.
- Wednesday 12th November - repeat performance of 'Archie Hamilton's War'
- Saturday 6th December, 11:30 - 2 - Christmas Fayre

Over the past month we've had a special parents session on how we teach maths at Wilby - as it's very different to how it would have been taught when our parents were in school. Our Harvest Festival was held in St. Mary's Church, with readings, prayers and song giving thanks for the bounty of the season. An Open Day was held to welcome prospective parents into the school.

The High Suffolk Sports Partnership Cross Country Trials were held at Mellis Common on a beautiful Autumn afternoon. Several of our children made it through to the County finals later in the year. Well done!

Our Key Stage 2 children had a fascinating trip to the Imperial War Museum Duxford, as part of learning more about WW1. The day included some role-play, with the children imagining the pressures, pros and cons of enlisting, as well as visits to the hangars and special exhibits.

Like all schools, our strategic direction is guided by our Governing Body - which for Wilby includes four parent governors, two staff governors, two Foundation governors (nominated by the Church), one nominated by the Local Education Authority, and two drawn from the local community.

Our community governors are Mrs Judith Rayner-Green and Mr Ian Chapman.

Last but not least, on Saturday 13th October our Headteacher Philippa Nunn was married in St. Mary's Church, Wilby, to Robbie Coleman - so Miss Nunn is now Mrs Coleman! We wish them all the very best.

Please feel free to contact Mrs Coleman and her team if you have any questions about Wilby School.

Service of Remembrance and Dedication of our New War Memorial

9.30am Sunday, 9th November on Brundish Village Green

LET US COME TOGETHER TO REMEMBER THEM

As we have all been reminded, this year is the 100th anniversary of the outbreak of hostilities which came to be known as The Great War and latterly The First World War.

If we can cast our minds back to what life was like in Brundish in 1914, we would find it difficult to see any real connection to how we live today. Yes, the old cottages might look familiar; probably more run down, the church would be recognizable, maybe the pub. The village hall would be populated by our children as it was the primary school and there would have been a working forge, two windmills, a blacksmith alongside The Crown and a shop at Mill Cottage with the post office up The Street. The roads would be no more than mud tracks, and most of the men and women in the village would have worked the land.

Imagine then, after four years of war, the devastating effect on our village with less manpower, nineteen good men having lost their lives. Men who were husbands, fathers, sons, nephews, workers all. It was to take decades to recover before it all happened again.

Some surnames on the existing war memorial in the church are still recognizable to residents today. James Abbott was Brundish's solitary victim during the Second World War and his loss was as poignant as everyone's who died during the First World War.

These brave men have their names etched into granite tablets which are inserted into three recesses on the plinth of our village sign and the tablets will become a permanent reminder to us all of the ultimate sacrifice they gave us all for the freedom we enjoy today.

A great deal work and generosity has gone into providing our village with this new memorial. The Memorial was finished with the help of Councillor Matthew Hicks; who arranged a grant of £250 towards the cost of the engraving, from Suffolk CC. It is to be hoped that as many of us as possible will give up half an hour of our time on Remembrance Sunday to come down to our village green to pay our respects to these men of Brundish, especially in such an important year.

There will be a short Service of Remembrance and the Memorial will be dedicated by our Rector, Reverend David Burrell. Mario and Lesley at The Crown have very kindly agreed to open the pub after the service to serve coffee.

David Mulrenan

*You may not be related, You may not know their names,
But the air they breathed was Brundish air, and they walked the Brundish lanes.
And like as not they liked the same things we enjoy, tho' the pace of life was slower when our fathers and their fathers played,
around here, as naughty little boys.
They left this village, families and friends and went off into the unknown.
Some were lucky, some came back.....but some will never come home.
So if you have a moment to acknowledge the lives they gave,
come to the Green on Sunday morning to say thanks to the Brundish brave.*

ST LAWRENCE'S CHURCH, BRUNDISH

Benefice Christingle Service

4pm Sunday, 30th November at Laxfield Church

You are all invited to this Benefice Services which combines a Christingle with the marking of the 100th anniversary of the Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

Advent Carol Service by Candlelight

6.30 pm Sunday, 7th December at St Lawrence's Church

A very atmospheric service for Advent which includes Bach's Cantata Number 61 "Come Redeemer of our Race" (Num komm der Heiden Heiland), as well as carols and hymns for the occasion. It will include The Chantry Singers and the Brundish String Ensemble with celebrated singers Lindsey Gowers (Soprano) and John Jones (Bass). Directed by Michael Spencer. We are very fortunate in Brundish to be able to have the resources to celebrate Advent in this most moving way. Please do come along. You will be most welcome.

Carols at The Crown

8 pm Wednesday, 17th December at The Brundish Crown

Lesley and Mario once again invite everyone to join in the convivial atmosphere of our fine old country pub for an evening of festive cheer. It would be lovely to see more of you this year as this is always such an enjoyable and friendly community occasion. Sharpen up your vocal chords in time for the Carol Service, helped no doubt, by the appropriate lubrication! See you there.

Christmas Lessons and Carols by Candlelight.

6.30 pm on Christmas Eve at St Lawrence's Church

Last Christmas Eve, an incredible congregation of 178 people turned up at the church. This was the biggest attendance for over 60 years. It would be too much to ask that that be even equalled, but who knows? The Chantry Singers directed by Michael Spencer will be there on the night (not that Brundish folk need any help with singing!) and our wonderful old church will be bathed in candlelight to celebrate this most holiest of evenings. Last year the church went back to the traditional concept of lessons and carols, in a shortened version of the service from King's College, Cambridge that afternoon. It will be similar this year. It has been said before, but St Lawrence's on Christmas Eve has the ability to soothe the frazzled souls of even the hardest individual. Please do join us, where, as always, you will be warmly welcomed.

Christmas Midnight Communion

11.30 pm Christmas Eve at St Lawrence's Church

People from the length and breadth of the benefice will unite in Brundish to celebrate the first Communion of Christmas. The Chantry Singers will be there along with organist Michael Spencer. This is an important, age-old service and, whether you are a communicant or not, you are most welcome to join us.

MORE NEWS FROM BRUNDISH

Brundish Harvest Celebrations

There is always a lot of work connected with the Harvest Service and the Harvest Supper and that cannot be stressed enough. As usual, it is all down to the few who feel it is important to keep these age-old traditions going. They may say it was all worth it when it is over and they are right of course, but no amount of gratitude could be enough to thank all those who organize these events and services for the village. The time, money and energy they expend is over-generous on their part. They know who they are and God bless everyone of them.

Brundish Christmas Market/Fair

Sadly, there will be no Christmas Fair this year. Maybe we might be able to think about something less taxing on the organizational front next year. The Fair, apart from its fund-raising advantage to the church, gave people of the village a chance to gather to have a chat and a drink together. This year, we will miss that, however there are plenty of other opportunities to meet such as the Christmas Coffee Shop on 4th December, the Christmas Cinema Night on 11th December and Carols at The Crown on 17th December. Let's hope that we can all make a big effort to socialise with our neighbours during this lovely time of the year and support those who do all the organizing.

Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal

Our village co-ordinator, Diane Palmer will be calling on houses around Brundish this month with poppies for sale. Last year's village tally was one of the biggest ever, so in this very special year please be as generous as you are able. Thank you.
