October 2014

Dear Friends,

At the end of August we celebrated the Feast of St Augustine of Hippo. This great Doctor of the Church came to Christianity later in his life, influenced by his mother, St Monica. His life spanned the 4th and 5th centuries – a period when Christians had to face many problems in the society of their day. There was a lax and permissive morality in society; and danger of attack and violence which would overthrow the current order. And it happened. When Augustine was aged 56 Rome fell to her enemies and to many that seemed to threaten the end of civilization as they knew it. His writings deal with the many problems of the society of his day, which were not so different from our own.

In one of his books Augustine developed the theory of the just war. The idea had been there since Old Testament times. It was believed that while war was an evil thing and best avoided, there were circumstances in which it was a painful necessity in a fallen world. So Augustine set out clearly the criteria by which a war might be considered to be “just”.

A just war must be fought for a right cause. It must be fought to secure justice or remedy injustice; to protect the innocent or to champion human rights. It can be engaged in only when all attempts at negotiation had failed; and it can be undertaken only by a legitimate authority and after a proper declaration of war has been made.

A just war must be controlled. The violence inflicted must not be greater than the evil it is intended to remedy. The war must be fought against the enemies' military forces and not against civilians. That might be difficult with modern methods of warfare, but nevertheless there must be no intentional killing of civilians. There must be the possibility of success. To engage in a war which cannot possibly be won, even though the cause may be righteous, is not acceptable.

To sum up, in the words of another great writer, John Stott, “a just war is fought for a righteous cause, by controlled means, with a reasonable expectation of success”. During the centuries which followed, Augustine's theory was endorsed by Thomas Aquinas and the 16th century Reformers. Officially it is held by Roman Catholics and Protestants today.

How do the present conflicts in the world measure up to the criteria of the just war? In seeking an answer to that question it is valuable to be able to consider the work of the great thinkers of the Church. In this way we can bring a Christian perspective and understanding to the current actions that are being taken around the world. We are not called by the Just War Theory to show how mighty we can be but we are called to protect the innocent and prevent gross acts of injustice. The leaders of the nations who claim to be Christian would be wise to remember that.

Let us remember that peace is not merely the absence of conflict but is also the presence of justice; and let us pray continually for the peace of the world.

David

NEWS FROM WILBY PARISH COUNCIL - September 2014

At its meeting on 3 September Council was advised that Alex Pullen has resigned as Clerk to the Council with effect from 30 September 2014. Alex has been the Clerk since May 2010 and Council recorded its thanks for her services over this period. Urgent steps are being taken to find a replacement.

Following the receipt of model templates, Council adopted revised versions of its Standing Orders and its Financial Regulations. In addition it agreed to adopt a revised version of the Suffolk Code of Conduct which governs the conduct of councillors. With these major items of domestic housekeeping out of the way, Council will seek to focus more directly on matters of direct interest to the community. In this regard representations have already been made to make good potholes in the village, notably at Swan Corner and arrangements are being put in place to enable individuals to support the campaign for better broadband through a link on the Parish web-site. In the meantime Frambroadband are in discussion with the PCC with a view to placing an aerial on the church tower. The problem of speeding vehicles in London City Road is also being pursued.

Active consideration is being given to mounting a survey of all residents to establish the community's needs and aspirations for the future of the village. Such information would enable the Parish Council to make better informed decisions of direct relevance and interest to residents, albeit that its actions will always be constrained by its legal powers and the resources at its disposal.

The next meeting of the Parish Council will be held at 7.30 pm on Wednesday 5 November 2014 in the Coronation Hall, to which all are most welcome to attend. (Please leave fireworks at the door!)

WILBY PARISH COUNCIL – CLERK

A vacancy has arisen for the post of Clerk to the Parish Council as from 1 October 2014.

This is a part time post, 12 hours per month, attracting a salary in the range £1,200 - £1,350 (pay award pending) and appropriate expenses.

The Clerk is the executive officer of the council and we are looking for someone with good communication skills, who is computer literate and who is familiar with running simple financial accounts. The ability to establish good working relationships with members of the council, the community of Wilby and other organisations will be essential. Previous knowledge working as a Clerk to a council or in local government would be of advantage. Help can be provided in acquiring the Clerks' relevant professional qualification, the Certificate in Local Council Administration.

If you are interested in a part time job helping to serve the community of Wilby please contact Ian Williamson, the Chairman of Wilby Parish Council, on 01379 388034 or by e-mail at ianwilliamson39@gmail.com

Issued on behalf of Wilby Parish Council, Ian Williamson, Chairman

NEWS FROM WILBY SCHOOL

As autumn rolls on we'd like to welcome several new families to the school. In addition the community would be very welcome at three upcoming events:

Wednesday 8th October, 9:15am – Harvest Festival Assembly at St Mary's Church

Tuesday 21st October: School Open Morning – for more information please see the separate A5 insert included with this newsletter. There will be a welcome session, an opportunity to see different curriculum areas (such as literacy, maths and PE) and a chance to chat with staff over a cup of tea or coffee. A timetable of events will be provided at the welcome session.

Tuesday 11th November, 6:30pm – A special performance of 'Archie Hamilton's War', a musical specially created to commemorate the 100th anniversary of WW1. More details will follow in the November newsletter.

Each week the school awards 'Wilby Stars' to children who have made an extra effort, done something special, or been particularly helpful or kind. A star is given to a child in each class (four in all). For example recently stars have been awarded for 'working positively and enthusiastically in maths', 'settling into his new class well', and 'teamwork in class' and 'writing a super letter to the zoo in literacy'. Stars are presented to the children on Friday mornings during the assembly.

In October our Key Stage 2 children will have a day trip to the Imperial War Museum in Duxford as part of the school topic on WW1.

Our after-school provision this year includes a science club, drama club, craft club, gymnastics club, football and dodgeball.

Some music examinations were held just before the end of last year. One Year 6 child achieved a 'distinction' in his Grade 1 cello exam, while another achieved a 'merit' in her Grade 4 trombone. Very well done!

The school would be grateful to receive any of the special coupons given out at the till by supermarkets – such as the Morrison's 'Let's Grow' vouchers.

The school tidy-up is continuing – most recently the school hall's weatherboarding has had a much-needed coat of barn paint. Again this was done entirely by volunteers. The school's nursery has been completely redecorated with fresh paint and carpet. We've also had new entrance gates installed that are taller (and therefore safer) and include the school name in colourful lettering.

Just before the end of the last school year we launched the school's new website. This now contains extensive information about the mission and ethos of the school, our classes, staff and governors, policy documents, diary dates, newsletters and much more. Please have a look at www.wilbyprimary.org.uk

Please feel free to contact Miss Nunn and her team if you have any questions about Wilby School.

INTERESTED IN FASTER BROADBAND?

In conjunction with the Wilby PC website (<http://wilby.onesuffolk.net/>) there will now be a hyper link on the NoticeBoard Page to the BT website where you can register your interest in faster broadband. It is a very simple process and the more times you can register the better, as it is a numbers game. BT has recently placed the Stradbroke, Church Street exchange on their roll out plan (evaluation), so the more interest that is registered, potentially the more BT will sit up and take notice. Here's the link : <http://www.superfast-openreach.co.uk/where-and-when/>
So, from the Wilby PC website (<http://wilby.onesuffolk.net/>), simply click on the link, or enter the above link into your preferred internet browser address bar. Then enter your postcode, and click on the 'Fill in our expression of interest form now' button, and complete the form. It's that easy!

ST LAWRENCE'S CHURCH, BRUNDISH

Brundish Harvest Festival

6.30 p.m. Sunday, 5th October at St. Lawrence's Church

The Harvest Festival for thanksgiving is still an important part of an agricultural village's year. This is no exception for Brundish. Last year's service was, as always, a colourful and joyous affair, but disappointing from an attendance point of view. It would be wonderful to welcome a bigger congregation this year. The Chantry Singers will be there singing a Harvest themed anthem.

Because the Harvest Supper is only the week after, it has been decided to dispense with the puddings and wine afterwards.

Hopefully we will all meet again the following weekend!

Brundish Harvest Supper

7 p.m. Saturday, 11th October at Brundish Village Hall

Last year's supper was the best attended for some years. It made it all the better for a lovely convivial evening of good food, good wine, and especially, good company. We are hoping for a similarly good turn-out this year, but please make sure you book your reservations in advance, especially letting us know if you are vegetarian. Mig Bacon is the person to call on 01379 388808 and she can give you an idea of the menu. If you want help with the preparations then please let Mig know this too. See you there!

Brundish Christmas Market/ Fair

No can do!

Unfortunately, it looks like there will be no Christmas Fair this year. Many people have been so kind in giving their time and energy over the years that it can't be expected that this will always happen, and in truth, there is no one out there ready, willing and able to take on the responsibility of coordinating all the plans.

Sorry to be the bearer of disappointing news.

David Mulrenan

ST LAWRENCE'S CHURCH, BRUNDISH

The Churchyard

The cutting, strimming and general maintenance of our lovely, verdant churchyard is down to a few hardy souls. Their help and expertise are very valuable as the work they do is both laborious and mindful of the need to protect the flora that can be found within its boundaries.

If anyone has some time and would like to help with the maintenance, in whatever way, please contact one of our churchwardens,
Mig Bacon on 01379 388808
or John Graham on 01379 384444.
Thank you very much.

Do you think you could sing in a Church Choir?

The Chantry Singers, who are based at Brundish, are on the look-out for new recruits. We meet at 7 p.m. on Friday evenings, not all year round, but sometime before big church services such as Easter, Harvest, Advent and Christmas.

*If you would like to join us, please contact our Director of Music,
Michael Spencer on 01728 724590*

SHCT SPONSORED BICYCLE RIDE - Saturday, 13th September

Thank you to all the volunteers who manned the church for the sponsored ride. Fortunately, it was a glorious day.

For all cyclists taking part and donating their monies to Brundish Church, could you please contact Anne St Quinton, Mill Cottage, Brundish on 01728 628309 as all cheques have to be returned to the Area Organiser before 13th October.

Thank you to all the cyclists and volunteers who took part;
it was much appreciated.
