September 2014

Dear Friends,

Psalm 67:6 reads:

'The earth has yielded its produce; God, our God, blesses us.'

By all accounts this year's harvest is a good one and I anticipate that by the end of the season freezers will be full of blackberry and apple pies. After a harvest thanksgiving service one year in which I had, in prayer, thanked God for the harvest, a farmer reminded me that it was his farm workers who had sowed, nurtured and harvested the crop, not God. Of course he was right, but I reminded him that without God's gifts of earth, water and Sun, no seed would grow and indeed the original seed had not been made by man.

It is a sad fact that as we advance technologically we spend so much time patting ourselves on the back that we forget the part that our creator played and plays in where we are today. It sometimes takes a severe drought or natural disaster to remind us just how much we are still part of, and dependent on nature. We have so much to thank God for, even the things that we attribute to our own efforts, at the end of the day we only have through God's grace. John 1:16 etc. spells this out.

However, we do not have the exclusive rights to God's mercy and love, it is for everyone and the whole of His creation. Leviticus 23:22 tells the farmer that he should not reap to the corners of the field, nor gather any crop that is dropped, he is to leave them for the needy. It is a call on us to share God's grace, and as he gave us from His abundance, so we should show His grace from ours.

With my prayers and best wishes

Ron

WILBY WORLD WAR ONE CENTENARY

On Monday, 4th August, 25 people met in Wilby Church at 10pm to mark the Centenary of the beginning of World War 1.

A candle was lit and the lights put out. Time of prayer, reflection and poetry followed. There are thirteen names on the war memorial in Wilby Church, the names of the Wilby men who died in the first World War. To many they have always been just that, names, but thanks to research by Barbara Barker we found out a lot more about them. These men became more than just names as we heard of their stories. It was moving to hear that three men - two brothers and a neighbour - who lived in Foals Green were killed in the space of just two and a half months.

We heard poems including some contemporary ones interspersed with music. As 11pm approached we heard 'For the Fallen', followed by two minutes silence and the Last Post and at 11pm the candle was extinguished and we left to return to our homes.

BRUNDISH WORLD WAR ONE CENTENARY

On Monday, 4th August, 30 of us gathered together in St. Lawrence's Church, Brundish to Commemorate and reflect on the Centenary of the beginning of World War 1. Eleven candles were lit in the Church at 22.00. We began to read nine poems written by soldiers of the First World War: Rupert Brooke, Iolo A. Williams, L.G. Moberley, Edward Thomas, Alfred Lichtenstein, Wilfred Owen, A.P. Herbert, Geoffrey Dearmer and Siegfried Sassoon.

After each of the nine readings, one of the candles was extinguished. The final reading was In Flanders Field, written by John McCrae. Another candle was extinguished. One solitary candle remained.

At 23.00 precisely, a 1915 military whistle was blown.

R.L. Binyon's Exhortation was recited:

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

The Commemoration ended, the last candle extinguished.

We will remember them

WORLINGWORTH'S FALLEN 1914-1918

A new local book is being published towards the end of September about the twenty servicemen of Worlingworth, who gave their lives for their country in World War One.

Following a number of visits to Belgium and Northern France and some extensive research, author Geoffrey Robinson has compiled short biographies of the twenty men who until now have remained just names on our parish war memorial. The book features many colour photographs and the men's lives are dealt with in the context of the major actions in which they fought, from the Somme, Ypres and Arras to Cairo and Mesopotamia. Priced £9.99, the book will be available on Book Launch Day at Worlingworth Community Centre on Saturday 27th September 10am till 1pm.

NEWS FROM WILBY SCHOOL

Welcome back to another year at Wilby School!

Have you been wondering what happens at school over the summer? Anyone passing by the school may have noticed that the car park is often full. Yes staff do get to put their feet up (for a short while!), but summer is a great time to catch up on improvements and maintenance to the building and grounds, and of course prepare lessons for the upcoming year.

This month a new National Curriculum will take effect for primary education – especially in English and maths but also in science, geography and other areas. Some parts of the new curriculum will not be required until September 2015 but the school has taken the decision to implement all changes now.

Did you know – every child at Wilby from Year 1 upwards receives a full term of swimming lessons, every year? Each class goes to the Stradbroke Pool once per week, for a term.

Just before the end of the last school year we launched the school's new website. This now contains extensive information about the mission and ethos of the school, our classes, staff and governors, policy documents, diary dates, newsletters and much more. Please have a look at www.wilbyprimary.org.uk

Every day the school hosts a 'Breakfast Club' before school, and also a range of after school clubs including board games, science club, book club, and dodgeball. This enables us to provide wrap around care from 8.00 am – 4.15 pm daily.

A simple and painless way to raise funds for the school is to do your online shopping via the www.easyfundraising.org.uk portal. Thousands of retailers take part – from Amazon and eBay to John Lewis, most supermarkets, ticket agencies, insurance and travel agents, and utility and phone companies. It costs the buyer nothing! Just search on the website for Wilby School (making sure to select the right Wilby), and after that 1 to 2% of your transaction's value will be redirected. It can even be Gift Aided. To date over £1,600 has been raised for Wilby in this way.

Please feel free to contact Miss Nunn and her team if you have any questions about Wilby School.

Two dates for the diary:

Wednesday 3rd September: first pupil day of the 2014/15 year

ST LAWRENCE'S CHURCH, BRUNDISH

Sunday, 7th September. Prayer Book Evensong

6.30 p.m. at St. Lawrence's Church

Saturday, 13th September. SHCT Sponsored Bicycle Ride

9 a.m. start

Sunday, 14th September. Village Worship

9.30 a.m. at St. Lawrence's Church

Sunday, 28th September. Holy Communion for Michaelmas.

11 a.m. at St. Lawrence's Church

Advance dates for your diary:

Brundish Harvest Festival

6.30 p.m. Sunday, 5th October at St. Lawrence's Church

The Harvest Festival for thanksgiving is still an important part of an agricultural village's year. This is no exception for Brundish. Last year's service was, as always, a colourful and joyous affair, but disappointing from an attendance point of view. It would be wonderful to welcome a bigger congregation this year. The Chantry Singers will be there and we always have refreshment, traditionally puddings and wine, afterwards.

Please do put this date in your diaries.

Brundish Harvest Supper

7 p.m. Saturday, 11th October at Brundish Village Hall

Last year's supper was the best attended for some years.

It made it all the better for a lovely convivial evening of good food, good wine, and especially, good company.

We are hoping for a similarly good turnout this year, but please make sure you book your reservations in advance, letting us know if you are vegetarian. Mig Bacon is the person to call on 01379 388808. If you can help with the preparations then please let Mig know this too. See you there!

Brundish Christmas Market

Saturday, 29th November at Brundish Village Hall

The Churchyard

The cutting, strimming and general maintenance of our lovely, verdant churchyard is down to a few hardy souls. Their help and expertise are very valuable as the work they do is both laborious and mindful of the need to protect the flora that can be found within its boundaries.

If anyone has some time and would like to help with the maintenance, in whatever way, please contact one of our churchwardens,
Mig Bacon on 01379 388808
or John Graham on 01379 384444.
Thank you very much.

Do you think you could sing in a Church Choir?

The Chantry Singers, who are based at Brundish, are on the look-out for new recruits. We meet at 7 p.m. on Friday evenings, not all year round, but sometime before big church services such as Easter, Harvest, Advent and Christmas.

*If you would like to join us, please contact our Director of Music,
Michael Spencer on 01728 724590*

SHCT SPONSORED BICYCLE RIDE - Saturday, 13th Sept

Anyone who would like to join in the Sponsored Bicycle Ride, on 13th September, please phone Anne St Quinton (01728 628309) for a Sponsor Form for either cyclists or walkers. Proceeds of your valiant efforts are divided between the Suffolk Historic Churches Trust and our local Brundish church. You can choose wherever you want to go, however many churches you wish to visit and take as long as you like between 9am to 5pm. If you cannot cycle, perhaps you could help man the church for an hour or two to record the visitors. It is a delightful place to be and any help will be appreciated. Thank you. (01728 628309 for more information).

Treasured Pens

Handmade pens from Rural Suffolk

Treasured Pens are based on the Suffolk/Norfolk border. We handcraft fine pens from natural wood as well as acrylic. We offer a range of styles and colours to accommodate all tastes. We make all the pens here in our workshop so no two pens will ever be the same and all will have their own character. Pens can be a great birthday or anniversary present for someone you love or how about a lovely wedding pen for your special day. Beautifully handcrafted pens made to your order. Choose any material and style and let our master craftsman do the rest.....
